

Message to FCC:

I use my XM Satellite Radio both at home and in the car. The new service provided for weather and traffic is very important to me in my business. It lets me keep up to date on the weather and traffic easily and efficiently, much more so than using the local radio stations.

Just like the music offered by XM Radio, it lets me choose what I want to listen and when rather than being at the mercy of the local stations.